Tournament Format

The Play Offs are a knockout tournament, with the teams playing a series of single-elimination matches to determine the winner. The tournament is divided into two stages: the group stage and the knockout stage.

In the group stage, the teams are divided into eight groups of four teams. The teams in each group play each other once, and the top two teams in each group advance to the knockout stage.

In the knockout stage, the teams play a series of single-elimination matches to determine the winner. The matches are played over two legs, with the team that scores the most goals on aggregate advancing to the next round.

The final of the Play Offs is played at a major stadium, and is one of the most prestigious matches in the world football calendar.
