A Journey Through North Texas Breweries

1. Rabbit Hole Brewing: Down the Rabbit Hole of Craft Beer

Nestled in the historic district of McKinney, Rabbit Hole Brewing invites you to plunge into a realm of imaginative and award-winning beers. Experience their top-rated Rabbit Hole Rauchbier, a captivating blend of smoky and malty flavors, or embark on a hoppy adventure with their IPA, showcasing the vibrant aromas and bitterness of American hops.

2. Turning Point Beer: Where Innovation Brews

In the vibrant city of Bedford, Turning Point Beer is a beacon of innovation and experimentation. Their Nitro Cold Brew, infused with locally roasted coffee, delivers a smooth and invigorating caffeine kick. Don't miss their Barrel-Aged Dubbel, a complex and flavorful brew aged in bourbon barrels, offering hints of vanilla and oak.

3. Franconia Brewing Company: The Bavarian Tradition in Texas

Step into Franconia Brewing Company in McKinney and be transported to the heart of Franconia, Germany. Their meticulously crafted Hefeweizen, adorned with a fluffy white head, embodies the refreshing and authentic flavors of the Bavarian tradition. Pair it with their hearty Bavarian Pretzel for an idyllic culinary experience.

4. Revolver Brewing: Unleashing the Spirit of the Wild West

Venture to the rugged town of Granbury, where Revolver Brewing pays homage to the legendary Texas Rangers. Their signature Blood & Honey Ale, an amber ale with a hint of sweetness, evokes the warmth and charm of the Wild West. Don't forget to sample their popular Trainwreck IPA, a bold and flavorful brew with a pronounced bitterness.

5. Deep Ellum Brewing Company: The Heart of Dallas' Craft Beer Scene

In the heart of Dallas' vibrant Deep Ellum neighborhood, Deep Ellum Brewing Company is a pioneer in the city's craft beer revolution. Their Deep Ellum IPA, a classic and refreshing American IPA, remains a local favorite. For a unique twist, try their Neon Beach, a juicy and tropical-infused sour ale that will transport you to the shores of paradise.

6. Four Corners Brewing Company: The Art and Science of Craft Beer

Nestled in the quaint town of Lewisville, Four Corners Brewing Company seamlessly blends art and science in their meticulously crafted beers. Their Mosaic IPA, a masterpiece of citrusy and fruity flavors, showcases their passion for hop-forward brews. Embrace the artistic side with their Lavender Saison, a delicate and floral beer infused with the essence of lavender.

7. On Rotation Brewing Company: A Taproom of Ever-Changing Delights

In the bustling city of Plano, On Rotation Brewing Company keeps beer enthusiasts on their toes with a constantly rotating tap list. From crisp and refreshing Helles to rich and complex Stouts, there's always something new and exciting to discover. Join them for a beer flight and let your taste buds explore a wide range of styles.

8. Peticolas Brewing Company: The Trailblazers of Dallas Craft Beer

Peticolas Brewing Company, a pioneer in the Dallas craft beer scene, has earned a reputation for excellence. Their Velvet Hammer, a full-bodied Oatmeal Stout, delivers a velvety texture and rich chocolate notes. Their Golden Opportunity, a crisp and approachable Golden Ale, is perfect for any occasion.

9. Community Beer Company: A Hub for Local Gatherings

In the heart of Dallas' Design District, Community Beer Company is more than just a brewery—it's a vibrant gathering place for the community. Their rotating selection of beers, from hazy IPAs to barrel-aged sours, caters to diverse tastes. Enjoy a pint while mingling with locals and soaking up the convivial atmosphere.

10. Armadillo Ale Works: A Texas-Sized Craft Beer Experience

Venture to the town of Denton and discover Armadillo Ale Works, a brewery that embodies the spirit of Texas. Their Hopothesis IPA, a bold and assertive brew, showcases the power of American hops. For a true Texas experience, try their Armadillo Milk Stout, infused with the roasted flavors of local pecans and coffee beans.
